

Essay.

Language ^{plays} ~~is~~ indispensable role in ~~the~~ thriving a culture and cannot be overlooked if want to spread our traditions to different ^{world wide} parts of the world. It is because of linguistic differences people are rooted to their home towns and cities. Although majority of ~~the~~ population in the world is communicating in english, other languages cannot be ignored in lieu of that.

English ~~is~~ is a very popular language and has been very rampant. ~~the~~ Majority of the countries have people who communicate in english language and have an unbeaten command over it. In fact, countries like India have english as an obligatory subject in their primary school curriculum. Having only english language ^{as a} mode of communication can ~~solve~~ solve many prominent issues such as discrimination on the basis of language. Moreover, it can also help in elevating the tourism industry as people can then communicate to anyone in all parts of the world.

//_

However, if we see the other face of the coin then there arises a huge problem because adopt

However, if we ~~test~~ ^{adopt} english language as the only way of oral interaction, it can bury many historical cultures and traditions. In fact there are many popular towns and cities which are only known because of their linguistic diversity. Needless to say, the essence of tourism and curiosity of travelling ~~to different parts of the~~ ^{across the globe} will vanish and eventually die because of the prevailingly single linguistic culture.

It is always to good to have variety and ~~languages~~ ^{languages} having different languages ~~is~~ will always be a blessing.

All languages should be given equal importance and every step ~~to~~ should be taken to protect their existence. Lastly, being multi-lingual ~~and~~ is always an advantage and should be looked up by all of ~~us~~ us instead of converting this beautiful planet into a single lingual society.