

The use of social media is replacing face to face interaction among many people in society.

Discuss advantages and disadvantages
Do you think advantages outweigh the disadvantages?

Nowadays social media is degrading physical interaction between people among the society. but it has certain advantages too. This essay is all about the merits and demerits of social media that overcome the physical interaction between people. However advantages outweigh the disadvantages.

The three main advantages of using social media is connecting people easily, Exposure to the world and gaining up to date knowledge about the society. Firstly, social media is very beneficial for connecting with people who are not around us. For example, through whatsapp, Instagram and Telegram we can connect with people within a fraction of seconds. In ways of chatting or audio chats. Secondly, one can expose ~~his~~ their talent through this platform. For instance, In current trend people who are multitalkers are using social media platforms such as showing their talent to the world by uploading a video on social media to get more popularity. Finally, people gaining more knowledge by using these social medias. Additionally, when people regularly using social media in a good side one can definitely achieve great things.

However, on the other hand, social media having many disadvantages too. cyber crime is increasing, addiction to social media leads to uninterested in studies and work and reduction of memory cells. Firstly, in recent days cyber rate has been increasing. For instance, Hacking datas from a big company and asking money is a new trend in cyber crime. Then online bullying makes many young teenagers to commit suicide. Secondly, one can addicted to social media easily. excessive utilization of anything leads to danger. In this sake the addicted people cannot focus on their regular life.

Finally, overusage of smart phones and social media are paving a path for destructions to their own life.

To wrap up, Even though social media are having several negative aspects and growth of crime rates are increasing. It has an drastic positive influence on society by connecting people around the world, gaining knowledge and good exposure to the world. In my perspective these benefits outweigh its drawbacks.
