

Letter Writing.

You recently did a short cookery course. The cookery school has asked for your feedback on this course. Write a letter to the course director at the cookery school.

Dear Sir,

I am writing this letter to share my experience about the cookery classes I attended last month at your school.

I took the bakery course as I am fond of cakes and cookies a lot and I was thinking to try my hands on it from a very long time ~~but~~ ~~this~~ Taking this course was a whole different experience for me. I really enjoyed baking the chocolate truffle cake and the cookies as they resulted yummy.

Last week on my mother's birthday, I baked a red velvet cake which was actually loved by everyone in the house. I ~~didn't~~ never thought that I could ever bake such soft and creamy cakes at my own. All the criteria goes to the best faculty you have at your school.

In future, I am also looking forward to learn Italian cuisine, so I would suggest you do start some courses related to the same so that I could be a part of your school again.

Overall the experience was amazing ~~at the~~ and I would love to recommend this course to my family and friends.

Yours faithfully.
